Treasurer's Report – * Report Accepted

Treasurer reported that the annual corporation fee was paid to the state of Oregon; $150 was paid to OSU for participation in the Beaver Community Fair. There was no other unusual activity--

Hosting Willamette Quarterly Meeting (WQM) Report -- * Report Approved

The venue for the May 2-4, 2025 WQM will be Camp Lutherwood, located on the coast southwest of Corvallis. Friends are encouraged to look at the Lutherwood website.

Planning WQM: After developing a theme, volunteers will be needed for organizing events, recruiting and guiding volunteers, communication, project planning, and logistics. CFM pledged to host WQM next spring. With guidance from the WQM Ministry and Council and the planners of past WQMs, we need volunteers to step up to make it a success. Please contact Bob Ward or Bob Burton to volunteer.

WQM is seeking a more permanent home for WQM, which ideally takes into account ease of access for elders and disabled folk, children's activities, can accommodate 30-40 people, and is easy to get to for all monthly meetings.

Worship and Ministry Committee (W&M) Report – * Report Approved

The first in the series Deepening Spiritual Connections took place September 30. The second in the series will take place Monday, October 29 from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm. The time change was made so that attenders won't have to drive after dark. Everyone is welcome regardless of attending the first meeting. We are both getting to know each other and deepening our spiritual connection.

Pastoral Care Committee (PCC) Report:

Hugh and Jeanne Davidson – A letter was received from Hugh and Jeanne requesting a letter of transfer to Flagstaff Monthly Meeting (Intermountain Yearly Meeting). CFM Clerk of the Meeting will send a reply. It was requested to get a firm address for their sons, Neil and Kevin, one of whom is also a member of CFM. * Approved

Transitions: Dorothy Mack – An obituary from the Red Cedar Circle Society, Redmond Washington for Dorothy Mack, was shared. Friends remembered her for having hosted CFM women for annual retreats on the coast and for her activism with Alternative to Violence among other social justice activities. It was decided that many people have stories of Dorothy to share and we should honor her memory during the next potluck (Oct. 20). * Report Accepted

Adult Religious Exploration (ARE) Report – * Report Approved

First Sundays Second Hour will continue to explore the questions of Quaker process raised last winter. Spiritual Books discussion(s) will follow on (dates to be announced).

Nominating Committee Report – * Report Approved

Nominating committee received a request to add another member to the ARE committee. No one has been found and the committee is continuing to search.

Peace, Justice, Environment, Committee of the Whole –

Friends were asked to note their reflections to the showing of “Where Olive Trees Weep.” A discussion of the film will take place during Fourth Sunday, Second Hour (11:40 am, Oct 27). Further direction remains unclear, but will be taken up at that time. [Ed. Note: Worship Sharing format was used for Oct 27 mtg.]

Reports of Volunteer Coordinators

Outreach Coordinator * Report Approved

Friends participated in the Beaver Community Fair on the OSU campus where connections were made with students, staff, and faculty interested in learning about Quakers and Corvallis Friends Meeting. Volunteers set up and staffed the table (which displayed two Quaker Oats boxes to attract attention), made oatmeal cookies to hand out, and shared their experience of Quakers with people stopping by.

Cookies left over were taken to Unity Shelter.

It was noted that new business cards need to be printed with updates of phone and email addresses made. Outreach coordinator will follow through with this.

Jay Thatcher asked the Meeting to engage with the Vina Moses Christmas program: putting out gift trees, providing presents for children and teens, delivering trees and later, presents to the distribution site. Susan E Wendy R and Bob B volunteered to support this effort. In the past, this program has provided an opportunity for adults and children of CFM to shop together for presents for the program.

House Committee – * Action approved

The House Committee requests funds be made available for professionally cleaning the carpets. Kathy Miller will get quotes. Expectations are that the cost will be upwards of $500. A request was made to ask the scheduling coordinator to gently remind renters to inform Meeting of any spills or accidents on the carpeting and not to bring bikes inside to drip on the carpets.

“Quaker Concepts,” a pilot program to reinvigorate and connect Quaker Meetings by sharing and learning what works for Meetings and what is needed. Applications for the initial advisors and facilitators are open.

Announcements

Friends are reminded of the Meeting for Worship next week at Philomath City Park, 10:00 am.

Advices and Queries on Prayer

In prayer, Friends find humility and courage, guidance and strength for our daily lives.

Prayer requires attention.

Any form of prayer can open our hearts to God. Frequent and regular prayer leads us to become faithful in our lives.

- Do we set aside times of quiet for openness to the Spirit?

How do we come to know an inward stillness amid the activities of daily life?

- Do we encourage in ourselves and in others a habit of returning to the Source throughout each day?
- Are we open to new Light, from whatever source it may come?
- How do we give communal attention to prayer, giving voice to joys and needs that Friends feel?
- How does our personal prayer life enrich meeting for worship?
